windows in our home in 2019. Again, Full Circle came through and did a great job. The third project was a remodel of our bathrooms. It included installing tile flooring in both, and a tile shower in our smaller bathroom.

The bathrooms are located in our second home and we were not there when the work was being completed. However, Dave McKinley would send us photos on a regular basis. He did check in calls and made sure to inform us whenever something unexpected happened. We were very impressed with his professionalism and attention to detail.

Full Circle employs talented craftsman.

We heard about Full Circle by looking up local contractors in the Mackinaw/Indian River/Cheboygan area. We would definitely recommend Full Circle to friends who are looking for quality craftsmanship with an attention to detail. If something arises that we need in the future, Full Circle will be at the top of our list.

We cannot stop talking about how amazing our bathroom remodel turned out. Full Circle employs talented tradesmen.

Full Circle has completed three home projects for our family. The first project started with replacing our roof in 2018.

Dan and his crew did a great job and kept us informed along the way. This formed a good impression and when another project came along we easily called Full Circle.

The second project involved replacing all of the
